C/A No. 2:07-2573-JFA
ORDER

Plaintiff, a prisoner proceeding pro se, signed a complaint filed pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983 concerning prison conditions at Lieber Correctional Institution, a facility of the South Carolina Department of Corrections. Plaintiff was one of several hundred signatories to the complaint. On July 6, 2007, this Court issued an Order denying the request for certification of class action in Lilly v. Ozmint, 2:07-1700-JFA, and directing that the multiple plaintiff case be separated into individual cases for each plaintiff. [Docket # 1]. By Order filed August 13, 2007, Plaintiff was given an opportunity in this case to present his individual claims against the named defendants by filing an Amended Complaint. Plaintiff, however, did not receive the Order because it was returned to the Court as undeliverable mail marked “released.” Plaintiff has not provided the Court with an address at which he receives mail, and the Court’s docket indicates no attempt by Plaintiff to contact the Court since filing the initial complaint with a correct address. Plaintiff has failed to pursue and prosecute his case.

This case is dismissed without prejudice pursuant to Rule 41 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. See Link v. Wabash R.R. Co., 370 U.S. 626 (1962)(District Court has inherent power to sua sponte dismiss case for lack of prosecution).

IT IS SO ORDERED.

United States District Judge
